QUESTIONING KENTUCKY COMMISSION POWER

The Cincinnati Enquirer, which evidently voices ne ideas of the Latonia management, says that a the near future something of the Kentucky Racag Commission powers will be learned. It goes on

"Apparently the law was framed for the best interests of the turf at that time, when a turf war threatened to put things on the toboggan in Kentucky. It looks as if the intent of the law was not to give the five men autocratic power, as it subjects their real moves to the review of a court of the craft.

jects their real moves to the review of the state.

"No official announcement has been made as to what the Kentucky tracks will do this fall. At Louisville the meeting, if held, will take place at Douglas Park, which has been overhauled and the track made safe by the building of a chute for the start in six furlongs events, and the track itself widened sufficiently to permit a good-sized field to connecte.

"There are rumors to the effect that Louisville and Latonia will ask for fall dates, and at the same time will ask that they be permitted to use any form of betting they see fit. If this permission is refused, the case will be taken before the court of Appeals for a review of the action of the Court of Aspeals for a review of the action of the Racing Commission.

"The law creating the commission failed to make provisions for its maintenance. The commission then went in to licensing the game, and the jockeys and trainers have to pay to perform in Kentucky. If would have been better if the race tracks had been assessed for a small percentage of their gross receipts, which might at the same time lift a few burdens from the taxpayers."

LAWRENCE P. DALEY'S CANADIAN DERBY.

Great Crowd in Attendance on the Opening Day of the Fort Erie Meeting.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 27.—The inaugural meeting of the new Niagara Jockey Club began today at Fort Erie under conditions that could not well have been improved upon. The crowd was the largest that ever witnessed a race run over this course. The opening augurs well for the success of the new club and every indication points to the present meeting being the greatest ever held in this section. Reports had been sent out by the club's representatives of many improvements having been under to the plant, but the public was not prepared for the transformation witnessed today. Fort Erie in its present dress resembles the course at Brighton Beach very much except that the old ocean is lacking.

its present dress resembles the course at Brighton Beach very much except that the old ocean is lacking.

The gathering was an enthusiastic one and a majority of the races furnished keen contests and when Lawrence P. Daley, the odds-on favorite, beat bennis Stafford out a neck in the Canadian Derby, it brought the vast throng in the stand to their feet.

The horses that went to the post, although numbering only five, were fairly evenly matched and made a stirring contest. At some stage of the race every one of the starters appeared to have some chance of winning. Lawrence P. Daley was always the public choice and was heavily backed. The fact that Nicol had the mount influenced many to back the colt. In the early running the Canadian-owned Uncle Toby went to the front and showed the way until rounding the turn out of the backstretch, where he began to tire. Dennis Stafford, which had been following the leader closely, then moved up and at the middle of the far turn Nicol elected to make his move. When called on, Lawrence P. Daley had come through on the inside at this point, while Dennis Stafford bore out and went wide. The pair hooked up at the eighth post and from there to the finish a desperate struggle ensued. At the end it seemed that the favorite tired a bit and that Dennis Stafford would have beaten him in a few more strides. Pinkola, the Latonia Derby winner, was third, beaten a length and a half. Minder rook a waiting race and had him under slight restraint for the first five furlougs. He made a game challenge on the far turn, where he moved up fast, but in the stretch was unable to improve his position.

One unpleasant incident	transpired in the after.

One and one-half miles in 1898 and 1899.
One unpleasant incident transpired in the afternoon and came with the running of the fifth race when Dixle Himmel, favorite, ran such a poor race that her performance elicited unfavorable comment. The judges were dissatisfied with her showing and questioned jockey 0tt, but no action was taken. Al Muller, showing a rare turn of speed, sprinted into the lead from the start, but nearing the end he tired perceptibly and barely lasted long enough to withstand the rush of Miss Strome.

Bridoon, which had been prepared at Hamilton and shipped yesterday, proved his superiority over a mediocre band of youngsters in the opening race and led throughout.

Eminola proved the afternoon's surprise by winning in a sharp drive over Snake Mary. Dan de Noyles and Tom Dolan, both favorites in their respective races, were easy winners.

An announcement was made today by the management that no purses will at any time during the meeting be less than $400. Through an error the program book has the purses scaled to $300.

Jockey Delaby was today engaged to ride the horses comprising the P. T. Chinn stable during the term of racing at Fort Erie.

TONY FAUST IN GOOD FORM AGAIN.

Seattle, Wash., July 27.—Pert, a filly recently brought from Denver by C. B. Daniels, alone saved the situation for favorite backers at The Mendows today. The remaining five choices—Elmdale, Brookleaf, Don Domo, Monvina and F. Neugent—made sorry showings, third being the best any of them could do. Pert was the medium of a big plunge by J. K. Hughes and others of her stable connections, on the strength of a fast work-out in preparation for the race and there was considerable public following of this smart set. The victories of Escamado, Belle Kinney and Stoney Lee, winners at liberal odds, gave the books good breaks, as all receded for lack of substantial support, while other starters in their respective races were heavily backed. Stoney Lee's success was especially welcomed by the layers, as Josie's Jewel, which he beat by a nose, was one of the best backed horses of the day.

Tony Faust, looking better than ever before in his career, broke the barrier six times before the field got away in the closing race. He was so full of life and spirits that his rider, "Cricket" Kelly, simply could not hold him and he won in a manner that greatly pleased the extensive local following that the cold's good two-year-old performances here had earned him.

It is expected that the judges will conduct an investigation into the form somersault that Stoney Lee turned in winning his race. In his last time out this horse finished a bad last, seemingly unable to raise an ordinary gallop. F. Neugent's poor showing today is probably attributable to an injury sustained in his previous start, when his leg was badly gashed.

Jeckey McBride was fined $25 for forcing Adela R. into the rail on the turn in the first race.

MONTREAL'S FALL STAKES DISPLAY.

MONTREAL'S FALL STAKES DISPLAY.

Montreal, Que., July 27.—The Montreal Jockey Club's autumn stakes were announced Saturday. They are eight in number and each has $1,000 added. Entries close at midnight of Saturday, August S. There are two stakes for two-year-olds, the Hochelaga at five and a half furlongs and the Huron at six furlongs.

For three-year-olds and upward there are four stakes as follows: Earl Grey Cup. one mile and a furlong; Laurier Cup, six furlongs; Champlain Selling Stakes one mile, and St. Denis Selling Stakes six furlongs. There are two steeplechase stakes, Strathcona, over the short course, and McDonald, at two and a half miles.

This makes a fine showing for a racing organization only in its second year and which has encountered tremendous expense in completing such a big plant as Blue Bonnets. The fact that the stakes have $1,000 added instead of guaranteed, will please horsemen, as the entrance money all goes to the winners. They should thus have a value of from $300 to $500 in addition to the added money.

of them all only the Latonia and Brooklyn races were at the correct Derby distance of a mile and a half. It is something in favor of New Orleans racing of the past that the Crescent City and City Park Derby ranked next to the Brooklyn event in value.

One of them all only the Latonia and Brooklyn races comes in the same category. Uncle Toby is moderate and Stone Street was an accident.

Of the winners, Fair Play stands out alone really high-class three-year-old. Meelick enjoys the distinction of being a triple Derby winner with the series of races of 1908 in this country and Canada ignified with the important name of Derby. Ten races of that name have been run this year, of which the Brooklyn Derby was the most valuable.

The annual meeting of the Saratoga Association begins Thursday afternoon. Many of the important stakes have been retained and in that respect the Saratoga meeting will be vested with points of great interest of which the Brighton Beach meeting was devoid. The Flash Stakes for two-year-olds and the Saratoga Handicap will be run Thursday. The Flash is of the guaranteed value of $6,000 and of the seventy-one two-year-olds eligible to start. Helmet, Selectman, Marse Abe, Summer Night, Armiak, Bon Homme, Lawton Wiggins, Connaught Ranger, Edward, Harrigan, Lady Hubbard, May River, Wise Mason, Torbellino, Blameless, El Picaro and Hillside are the best that have been seen in public. In the dark division Mr. Sanford has three, Van Den, Duncraggan and Broadalbin. All are by Rockton and there maybe a good one here, H. P. Whitney has in a brown colt by Diamond Jubilee—Miss Hamburg that may make his debut here. His name is Sixty. The Saratoga Handicap is one of the races that was declared off and re-opened at a reduced value. It is a dash of a mile and a quarter that holds out promise of a capital contest in which Nealon, 126, or Charles Edward, 129, Priscillian, 120, Eligic Cheff, 113, King James, 110, Monawk II., 110, or Vails, 109, Dandelfon, 110, Stamina, 108, or Royal West, 102, Monfort, 100 and Angelus, 98, may participate, 124 the Metal States Hotel, States Hotel States for two-year-olds and West, 102, Monfort, 100 and Angelus, 98, may participate.

Friday's program has no stake race, but the United States Hotel Stakes for two-year-olds and the Catskill Handicap will be decided Saturday. The United States Hotel Stakes is of the guaranteed value of $10,000 and is a dash of three-quarters of a mile. Madden's two cracks, Sir Martin and Fayette, are not engaged, his nominations being Caperwell, Lawton Wiggins, Connaught Ranger, Edward, Clockwork, Hatrigan and Lady Hubbard, Other eligibles of note are Marse Abe, Summer Night, Strike Out, Armiak, Bon Homme, Statesman, Selectman, Esperanto, Casque, May River, Wise Mason, Torbellino, Hillside, County Fair, Robbin, Blameless and El Picaro. Mr. Sanford's entries are Rock Ore and Duncraggan. The Catskill Handicap is a dash of seven furlongs and among the fast ones entered are Priscillian, Fair Play, Half Sovereign, King Cobalt, Dreamer, Dandellon, Angelus, Restigouche, Peter Onince, King James, Falcada, McCarter, Charles Edward, Nealon, Frances Ray, Poly Watts, Far West, Bar None, Westbury, Baby Wolf, Stamina, Sir Lynnewood, Ffrestone and Big Chief, an aggregation that should furnish a race worth going to see.

BLACKLOCK, THE FIDDLE-HEADED BRUTE.

Blacklock may be said to have been the great founder of the most predominant breed now known to the turf. He was sometimes known as the "fiddle-headed brute," and also as "Blacklock of the mighty stride," The dam of Blacklock was spurchased in 1810 for $15. Blacklock won several of the Subscription purses of $5.000 and, apart from his fine race for the St. Leger, his greatest performance was when he won the Subscription of $5.000 at York. He was five years old, the distance was four miles and he ran it in 7:47.—The Sporting Times.

"The opposition to racing in New York," says Major P. P. Johnston, president of the National Trotting Association, and a breeder of thoroughbreds and trotters for many years, "will not stop racing. It may, however, eliminate some of the objectionable conditions on the race tracks of the present day, and will affect the thoroughbred race courses more seriously than the courses used for light harness horses. As I gather from the papers and from conversations with those visiting Kentucky from the east, there is no opposition to racing, but to gambling. I know that as long as there is racing there is and will be some gambling, just as there is in every feature of life's work, for if a man wants to speculate he may bet on the length of a sermon that may be preached next Sunday, but because this bet is made the preachers will not stop preaching. A bet may be made on a foot race, a croquet game or a lawn tennis game, and yet these forms of recreation will not cease because the bet has been made."

THE COMMONSENSIBILITY OF BETTING.

Racing as a national industry is admirably displayed in France. While the outlay of owners has been reduced to a minimum and the added money is derived from gate receipts and the percentage from the mutuel betting, a further boon is conferred by the reduction accorded by different railway companies on horses traveling to and from race meetings, as well as on marce sent to and from the studs. The Jockey Club and other racing societies distribute a certain amount of money as prizes to winners at those provincial meetings which have been instituted in localities where interest has been evinced in breeding.—The Field.
